10. 23.12.2008. In compliance of my order dated 22.12.2008, Jail Superintendent, Gaya along with Government Advocate-3 and the learned APP, Shri N.N.Tiwary is present. He expresses his regret for entering into correspondence with the court concerned. He further assures this Court that in future he shall be producing the petitioner as and when production warrant is received for his production. He further informs the court that the letters, which are issued from different courts under ordinary post and received by him are promptly attended to.

In view of such statement of the Jail Superintendent, Gaya and his undertaking to produce the petitioner on the subsequent dates not only in the present trial but also in the other connected trials, this application is disposed of and the cause shown is accepted.
